Completion of IT Network Infrastructure for San Francisco Conservatory Of Music

SFCM's new $80 million facility has a total of 8 floors and the network was designed with future expansion and fail-prove in mind for each of the floors. In anticipation of the new move Triware Network Systems working with SFCM's IT staff phased out and consolidated SFCM's older servers over the past few years. The company worked with SFCM's internal IT staff and the builders to design the network that would be ready for the multi-media content running at multi-gigabit...
